Back to Back Drawing

With your partner, decide who will be the Viewer and who will be the Listener (later, you will switch roles.)

- The Viewer will describe the object/artwork using only words and sounds.
- The Listener will sketch their interpretation of the description.

THE RULES:
- The Listener is NOT allowed to ask questions, except to have things repeated.
- The Viewer is NOT allowed to see the drawing until the activity is complete.

- The Listener stands in the Great Hall outside the galleries while the Viewer walks through an exhibition pavilion and chooses an artwork.

- Once the Viewer has chosen an artwork, he/she retrieves the Listener from the Great Hall and guides the Listener to the chosen artwork.

Note to Listener: you will want to keep your eyes lowered or head turned to avoid seeing the artwork the Viewer has selected.

- Once in front of the artwork, stand back to back with the Viewer facing the artwork.

- The Viewer describes and the Listener sketches for at least 5 minutes.

- Remember the RULES:
  - The Listener is NOT allowed to ask questions, except to have things repeated.
  - The Viewer is NOT allowed to see the drawing until the activity is complete.

When you’re finished, reverse roles and do the exercise again in the other open pavilion.
