

glee, pretty little liars, true blood, and 124 other reasons to steal the remote

- INCLUDING:
- parks and recreation
- the office
- my generation
- 30 rock
- breaking bad
- community
- friday night lights
- rubicon
- no ordinary family
- outsourced
- the event
- the big bang theory
- nikita
- the vampire diaries
- modern family
- the colbert report

+

interpol
jenny lewis's new sound
how to get a job in tv

omfg! it's gossip girl's jessica szohr

mad men-style makeup true romance

SEE THIS

the record:
contemporary art and vinyl

Opening this month at the Nasher Museum of Art at Duke University in Durham, North Carolina, this exhibit makes it quite clear that vinyl records can be much more than just sonic masterpieces. The 41 artists whose work is presented—including Christian Marclay, Jasper Johns, Ed Ruscha, and the ever-inspiring Carrie Mae Weems—made pieces out of (and about) records. The exhibition features Laurie Anderson's "viophonograph," a brilliant record-player-cum-violin, Berlin-based artist Satch Hoyt's 16-foot canoe made of red 45-rpm records, and a life-sized Polaroid photomontage by David Byrne—the very one that graced the cover of the Talking Heads' 1978 album More Songs About Buildings and Food. EMILY TEMPLE

show

SEPTEMBER 2010

