

Nasher Museum of Art at Duke University Board of Advisors

Purpose and Responsibilities

- Connect the museum to key stakeholders, supporters and constituencies on a national level
- Advise the museum on key planning and policy issues including strategic planning, collection development, program development and resource development
- Ensure a strong and lasting connection to key constituencies within Duke University
- Contribute yearly to the Duke University Annual Fund to support the Nasher Museum of Art at a leadership level. Consistent with individual giving capacity, members of the board will also provide gifts at leadership levels to support signature priorities, including endowment and capital projects
- Encourage philanthropic support from individuals, corporations and foundations, following best practices for fundraising in a complex university setting.
