

K-12 Education Consultant – Part-time, temporary contractor

About the opportunity:

The Education Department of the Nasher Museum of Art at Duke University is looking for three K-12 Education Consultants with teaching experience in elementary school, middle school, and high school respectively, to advise on and inform the production of materials, content, training and facilitation of tours, programs and resources.

The consultants will review our current materials and resources and recommend changes, updates, and/or creation of new content. Consultants will help inform lesson plans, teacher workshops and Gallery Guide training. This is a part-time 2-year engagement in which consultants will work 70% of the time remotely and 30% on site to attend meetings, deliver updates and finalized projects, and participate/facilitate training for Nasher staff.

The consultants will work closely with the Nasher's Education staff, particularly the Director of Education and Public Programs, and the K-12 and Family Educator. Potential consultants must have current or recent past experience serving local students, must have classroom experience, and familiarity with the North Carolina Standard Course of Study and Common Core Standards, and/or the North Carolina Foundations of Early Learning and Development.

Projects:

Tours and programs alignment to academic standards

Teacher workday workshop co-design

Research and facilitate Gallery Guide training on the current on social and emotional needs of students

Co-produce content for seasonal K-12 e-news

Co-design and produce pre- and post-visit materials

Translate and/or proof-read tours, resource and communication/marketing materials in Spanish

Research and co-create a resource for museum educators and education adjacent professionals on student engagement

Assess and recommend updates to existing online resources, or propose novel resource

Type of work: Part-time, 70% remote, 30% on site. This is a consulting contract based on projects and deliverables.

Term: 2 years

Compensation: $7,200/year

To apply: Submit updated CV and cover letter to diana.pena@duke.edu